

People First!

A Workshop on Disabilities Awareness, Inclusion and Sensitivity

People with disabilities face challenges that many of us who can walk, see, hear, speak and eat without difficulty often cannot imagine. Join us for an insightful workshop to help healthcare workers and all people become more aware and more sensitive to the needs of those who are differently abled.

FEATURING NADINE VOGEL

Nadine Vogel is founder and past president of the board of the Special Needs Advocate for Parents (SNAP), and currently president of Springboard Consulting, a global leader in supporting needs of the disability community in the work/ marketplace. Vogel is a College of Charleston graduate and member of the CofC Department of Communications Professional Advisory Council. She lives in New Jersey with her husband and two daughters, both of whom have special needs.
